

SOCIETY

SOCIETY is fast settling down for the long sunny days of May and June that drift so pleasantly by with little of importance to mark their passing, but long runs into the country in a big motor with a congenial party for luncheon or tea, and these small affairs are concluded each week with the usually dancing and dining at the Country Club. Just at present the weather has permitted a good deal of outdoor recreation, and the tables are placed on the terraces almost every afternoon for tea, and it will be only a very few weeks before the daintiest tables, with their soft shaded lights and flowers, will also be arranged there. The Horticulture has failed in popularity these bright spring afternoons, and the porches and tennis courts have been gay with society folk for their tea and a good game.

Two gala days for society will open on Saturday, May 20, with the annual spring races and horse show given here. Weather permitting, the two days, Saturday and Monday, will be the most brilliant of the spring season, and all of Richmond society will attend. Many horse parties will be on the grounds, and the members will assist in filling the boxes and grandstand. Another interesting feature of the annual horse show here, is the fact that a great many of the Richmond girls not only own horses, but ride them themselves, and a great deal of handsome entertaining will be crowded into the week-end in honor of out-of-town guests and prominent people visiting here for the occasion.

The story is told of Congress in the early days of the last century, when the races were on at the capital, that the Senate discovered at once that the ceiling needed repairing, adjourned and went to the races. Such is the resourcefulness of man sorely tried.

Week-End at Old Point.
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker, of 806 Park Avenue, left town this week for New York, where she expects to spend a week visiting her children in that city. Carl Walker is making his home in that city at present, as is Miss Rebecca Walker, who is in training at St. Luke's Hospital. Lieutenant Lindsay Walker, United States Navy, is in New York for a brief stay, his ship, the South Carolina, being stationed at the navy yard in that place. Mrs. Walker will return to Richmond the latter part of the week.

Week-End at Old Point.
Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Massey, Miss Lucille Massey and Miss Ethel Wedge, of Baltimore, are at the Chamberlin Hotel at Old Point for the week-end, and were among the out-of-town guests at the hop given in the ball room of the hotel last night. Miss Massey has recently returned from Atlanta, Ga., where she has been a guest of friends for several weeks, a number of handsome entertainments being incident to her stay there.

Anderson's Exhibit.
"Exhibited by a Local Artist" has hitherto had but little meaning to Richmond readers, but to those who choose to visit the rooms of the Art Club will find, perhaps to their surprise, strong reasons for modifying their ideas, for on the walls of the club are now hanging an exhibition of pictures by Miss Ellen Graham Anderson which will amply repay the trouble.

Miss Anderson is a daughter of former Attorney-General William A. Anderson, and began her studies under the tutelage of the Art Club of Richmond. Miss Anderson's exhibition comprises twenty-eight examples of her work, a portrait being on Richmond subjects and another portion composed of New York scenery painted while the artist was studying in the metropolis. One of the most striking of the landscapes is "The Metropolitan Tower at Dusk," a realistic presentation of one of New York's notable skyscrapers.

The portrait study of Mrs. William A. Anderson is composed with great feeling and bears closest study. "Thumb-box sketches" are in Riverside Park, and two at West Point, indicate the versatility of the artist and reflect credit upon the painter. The portrait from life of Mrs. T. M. Logan is a splendid piece of work and an excellent likeness of a charming subject. "Poplars in April" is the nearest approach to Impressionism given, and together with "A Pool in the Palisades Woods" and "In the Rumble Central Park" afford ample scope for the critic.

One scarcely expects to see such artistic sense in a view on a city street, but "Sixth Street—April" gives an idea how fraught with possibilities even a dull commercial thoroughfare can be when viewed through the right kind of eyes. But Miss Anderson does not confine her brush to portraits and landscapes as may be seen in "Poplars in an Old Arbor."

This charming exhibition will be carried on the walls of the Art Club until May 10, and it is hoped the public will embrace this opportunity for seeing and criticizing the work of this Richmond artist.

On the completion of her studies here Miss Anderson competed for a scholarship in the New York School of Art, where she also secured a scholarship in the Life Class of Painting, which she secured, and received high commendation for her competitive work. This artist is one of a number who have captured scholarships in the New York School.

Mrs. E. E. Moffitt left town Thursday to attend the Peace Conference in Baltimore. She was also present at the unveiling of a tablet presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution to the memory of John Paul Jones. After visiting friends in that city, Mrs. Moffitt will spend some time in Washington, returning to Richmond some time in the next few weeks.

Guests of Miss Agnew.
Miss Nellie Freese, of Canton, O., is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Agnew at the Country Club of Virginia. A number of pleasant affairs have been given for Miss Agnew's guest, who is the daughter of George Holden Freese, editor of the Canton Repository.

To Unite in Celebration.
The Junior Hollywood Memorial Association has been invited to unite with the Oakwood Memorial Association in the celebration of their forty-fifth memorial day, which will take place May 10, and also to attend the memorial services to be held in Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church to-day at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Junior Hollywood Memorial Association will meet to-morrow morning in Lee Camp Hall to arrange for Hollywood Memorial Day.

The Church Hill Meeting.
A meeting held in Liberty Hall, Church Hill on the evening of May 4, under the auspices of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia, was a success in every way, the audience being a large and representative one, and the speakers' program splendidly carried out by Miss Elizabeth Cooke, Mrs. G. Harvey Clarke, and Miss Mary Johnston.

Speakers for the evening were introduced by Mrs. Charles V. Meredith, whose prologue was most appropriate. Miss Cooke's remarks referred to the illuminating work done by members of "Know Your City Club," and Mrs. Clarke's address explained her interest in the cause of suffrage and its betterment work. Miss Johnston spoke at length and comprehensively, dwelling on the different phases and progress of the woman's movement all over the world, quoting the stock objections against suffrage, explaining the meaning of the word and of the word ballot, and answering objections with keen logic and great force. Applause was frequent and prolonged. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Trueheart and daughters, of Galveston, Tex., who came to Richmond from Lynchburg, Va., to hear Miss Johnston's speech. They are staying at the Jefferson Hotel, and were Miss Johnston's guests yesterday evening.

Mrs. Taylor had a party meeting at her home on Grove Avenue Friday evening, at which Miss Johnston met a pleasant assemblage and gave a parlor talk.

At the monthly meeting of the Suffrage League, Thursday afternoon, excellent reports were made by Mrs. Smithfield, recording secretary, and Mrs. E. G. Kidd, treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spiers afterward made addresses on the relation between the women's clubs and the schools, the necessity of children's playgrounds, and the spirit of idealism which should underlie all betterment work.

Attractive Tea.
A musical tea will be given on Thursday, May 11, from 4 to 7 o'clock, at 913 Hanover Avenue. The rooms will be prettily decorated in pink and white flowers, and a charming musical program will be rendered. Those taking part will be Mrs. Frank Duke, Mrs. Clark, Misses Ellen Douglas Garnett, Annie A. Derby, Lindsay Powers, Adele and Gertrude Clarke, Florence Pepple, Hattie Belle Gresham and G. Watson James.

Meeting Last Thursday.
The Loving Circle of King's Daughters met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stuart Reynolds to make final arrangements for lectures to be given by Professor J. C. Carlton Lee on May 18 and 19 at Murphy's Hall. The subjects of the three lectures to be delivered by Prof. Lee are "The Heart of a Child," "The Soul of a Woman" and "The Mind of a Man."

Art Club Notes.
Miss Emma M. Whitfield, of Richmond, gave an interesting and valuable talk last Tuesday afternoon at the Art Club, having for her subject the mounting, framing and hanging of pictures. In the course of her lecture Miss Whitfield made it plain that to get the best from the work of almost any artist the proper combinations or contrasts of color were as necessary for a correct appreciation of the work as any other factor. Giving several examples of correct and incorrect hanging and framing, Miss Whitfield was especially interesting in her demonstrations of what an important factor the point of view holds in the beauty of a painting. "Sky hanging" was deprecated in the strongest terms,

INDIGESTION

Swap Your Miserable, Unclean Stomach for a Sweet, Healthy One.

Fifty cents; that's all, for a box of M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets that will bring a smile to your dyspeptic countenance ten minutes after the first dose.

And Tragle Drug Co. state that if M-I-O-N-A doesn't end the misery of indigestion or banish stomach distress of any kind, you can have your money back.

What does that mean? It means that if any reader of The Times-Dispatch suffers from any of the following ailments and is not satisfied with the benefit M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets give them—money back.

Gas, acidity, heaviness, distress after eating, fermentation, heartburn, water-brash, belching, sourness, pain in stomach, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness, bad dreams, night sweats, headache, constipation, depression, bloating, foul breath, coated tongue, sea or car sickness, morning sickness.

"I am on my second box of M-I-O-N-A. I received relief after taking two doses. I feel like a different man. I have no misery like I had before. I commenced to take them. I am 64 years old and M-I-O-N-A is the best thing I ever used for stomach trouble." J. M. Burger, R. F. D. No. 4, Box 58, Woodbury, Ohio.

and the idea brought to the front that the centre of a picture should be as near as possible the eye centre of the observer.

The remarks of this able exponent of art for art's sake were listened to by a goodly audience with strict attention.

Following the talk tea was served by some of the younger members of the entertainment committee of the club.

Next Tuesday Mrs. Carroll H. Montague will make some remarks on "Impressions and Some Experiences Abroad." Mrs. Montague will also give an idea of how the so-called French Impressionist School of Art bears upon the art of the twentieth century.

Miss Nora Houston gave her usual talk to her unofficial art class Thursday, her subject being an account of the work of Velasquez.

Echo Meeting.

The Sunday service of the Young Woman's Christian Association for this afternoon will be in the nature of an echo meeting of the Biennial Conference, which was held in Indianapolis, Ind., from April 19 to April 24. The services will be held at the gymnasium, corner of Fourth and Cary Streets, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and all interested are cordially invited to be present. An unusually attractive program has been arranged, and the same songs and hymns that were sung at the convention will be used this afternoon. The delegates, who attended the convention will make their reports and take part in the program.
